The Capital District of Kiwanis International ("District") acknowledges that it will begin including accounts of Capital District Key Club and Capital District Circle K on the Districts' financial reports effective October 1, 2020. Further, District will include the accounts as part of its tax return for the 2020-2021 fiscal year. This action is being taken after consultation with legal counsel and tax advisors. This action is taken to reduce significant administrative expenses, and will benefit the District and the Youth Programs affiliated with the District.

The next Capital District Board of Trustees meeting is scheduled for March 7, 2021 to be conducted virtually as a result of the cancellation of the in-person Midyear Conference.

With no further business, motion was made by Secretary-Treasurer Wolff and seconded by Trustee Hiscock to adjourn the meeting. Motion passed unanimously.

Governor Baugh adjourned the meeting at 11:01am.

Respectfully submitted,
